

WorldStar Student Winners

The Turkish Students Were in The Limelight in The Worldstar Student 2015 Which Brings Forth The Designers Of The Future

In addition to the Turkish companies the packaging designers of the future sparkled with their global successes. The projects which ranked high in the tenth Packaging Design National Student Competition 2014 which was organized by the organization and REED TUYAP gained the right to join the WorldStar Student 2015. Dogukan Karapinar who is a student of Marmara University, Graphic Design Department was amongst the three winners and became entitled to receive the “WorldStar Student Award” with his Charcoal Drawing Pencil Packaging project. Mina Yanci, a student from Istanbul Bilgi University, Industrial Products Department and Merve Aynur, a student from Istanbul Technical University, Department of Architecture with their project PushEat and Denizhan Arda, a student from Anadolu University, Industrial Design Department with the project PureLight Sparkling Ocean Laundry Detergent Packaging Project were entitled to the Certificate of Achievement. A total of 11 projects placed in the competition and received winner or a certificate.

Dogukan Karapinar who is a student of Marmara University, Graphic Design Department was amongst the three winners and became entitled to receive the “WorldStar Student Award” with his Charcoal Drawing Pencil Packaging project.

Mina Yanci, a student from Istanbul Bilgi University, Industrial Products Department and Merve Aynur, a student from Istanbul Technical University, Department of Architecture with their project PushEat were entitled to the Certificate of Achievement

Denizhan Arda, a student from Anadolu University, Industrial Design Department with the project PureLight Sparkling Ocean Laundry Detergent Packaging Project was entitled to the Certificate of Achievement.